CANTOR JOSEPH PORTNOY, RABBI ALVIN FINE, RABBI MEYER HELLER, CANTOR REUBEN RINDER

As we review this past year at Emanu-El and in our Religious School, several unusually important events come to mind. Miss Ruth Samuelson, one of our former teachers, joined the Temple staff as librarian of the Jacob Voorsanger Memorial Library, and the library has become a busy center of activity and learning in the Religious School.

Shortly before summer vacation began last year, we held a special service in the Temple to celebrate Mr. Ludwig Altman's Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of service to Congregation Emanu-El.

For the second year, Cantor Joseph L. Portnoy assumed the role of Director of the Religious School, in addition to his responsibilities as Cantor. His outline of the studies and goals of each grade in our school proved to be a great help to students, teachers and parents.

In February, Rabbi Fine announced his resignation, but this will not take effect until June of 1964.

Soon after the news of Rabbi Fine's resignation, we were exceedingly sorry to learn that Rabbi Heller, too, will be leaving us. Rabbi Heller stated that for a long time he had been thinking seriously of taking a congregation of his own, and that this was the best time and opportunity to do so.

Rabbi Fine has been with us for fifteen years and Rabbi Heller for thirteen years. They have worked very closely together - especially in everything that had to do with the planning and development of an excellent program of Jewish education at Emanu-El. We shall miss them, and we wish them God's blessing. We know they will miss us, too - and that they pray for God's blessing upon us. They have reminded us that the work they began here is far from finished - that the work of Judaism is never finished. The rabbis who will come to take their places will continue that work, and we look forward with enthusiasm to meeting them, knowing them and following their leadership.

Our school is not only what the rabbis, cantors, teachers and committees make it, it is also what the students make it.

Also this year we observed Cantor Rinder's Fiftieth Anniversary at Emanu-El! An article about this appears elsewhere in the Scroll.

Now, as the school year ends, we congratulate the Confirmation and High School Class graduates and express our sincere hope that they will be back with us again next year.

The Board of Directors and Religious School Committee, the Temple Staff and Faculty join together in wishing you and your families a delightful and healthy summer - remembering, until we meet again in the fall, that we take a vacation from school, but not from Judaism.

The following are excerpts from two of the speeches delivered on the occasion of the presentation of the Rabbis' Honor Cups, January 1963.

Allan Gold - "As I stood at the threshold of Confirmation last year, I fully realized how valuable my years at Religious School have been. Without the firm religious foundations that I have received at Emanu-El, I would be a morally helpless and spiritually weak person. Not all of you can understand now just what I mean by these words. I can only say that you need a firm religious education and it may be the most important part of your lives. Only time will give you a full understanding of the great value of a sound religious education.

Yet as I stood ready to be confirmed, I realized that it was only the beginning. My silver cup is not yet finished. While it signifies the completion of my formal Jewish education at Religious School, this does not mean that my whole Jewish education is complete. I am now continuing my Jewish education in the high school class. It gives me deeper insight and further knowledge of Judaism. Also each day's experiences add a little more to my growth and understanding of Judaism. Actually no one ever stops learning, and even with the hardest and most sincere study, one can never truly complete his education. The honor cup was a goal for me when I was in Religious School, as it should be for each of you - to strive for and to obtain. But for me, it has now gained a far greater significance. My goal is now to work throughout my life to make my cup as complete as I can, with a continual striving for knowledge and an undying belief in Judaism."

Susan Colvin - "Each of the eight branches of the Chanukah menorah represents an ideal of Judaism. The first tells of God whose first command was 'Let there be light.' We, the recipients of the honor cup, constantly strive to fulfill God's commandments. The second is the light of Torah. Although we have finished our formal Jewish education, we know that learning about Judaism is a life-long process. Some of us have joined with other members of our Confirmation Class to attend the high school class under the guidance of Rabbi Grafman. The third light stands for Justice, and Judaism has always been concerned with justice - not just for the Jew, but for every man. The fourth is the light of Mercy. May we always show mercy for those who have less than we. The fifth light represents Holiness. In the words of the prophets we say, 'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Hosts; the whole earth is full of His glory.' The sixth light is the glowing light of Love, and one of the main aspects of Judaism is love of God and of one's fellow man. The seventh is the calm light of Patience. No award can be earned overnight. It takes hard work, help, perseverance and patience. The last light is that of Courage. We pray to God that we have the courage of the Maccabees to face the coming years.

There are many references to ZEDAKAH in Jewish literature which serve as guides to motivate the monetary contributions which students make each week to the Religious School Zedakah Fund. Some of the best known quotations are these:

"Zedakah equals all other commandments."

"The world stands upon Torah, worship, and deeds of kindness."

"All Jews are responsible for one another."

"If there be among you a needy man, open your hand to him..."

The total amount contributed by students during the present school year (from September to March 1962-63) was:

$1,919

At the conclusion of the school year in May 1963 we will have contributed the following amounts to these major agencies:

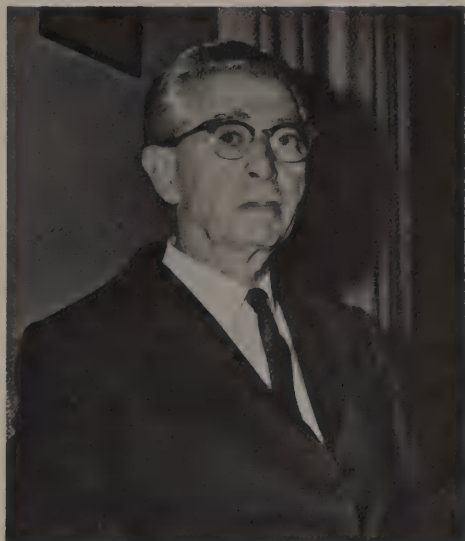

Jewish Welfare Federation of San Francisco and UJA Special Fund	$900
United Bay Area Crusade	360
Combined Campaign of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations	350
	$1,610

Some of the other agencies which have received contributions are as follows:

Jewish Braille Institute of America, Religious Education Association, Synagogue Council of America, National Council for Jewish Education, San Francisco Aid Retarded Children, Remez School, Association for Mentally Ill Children, Aid to Visually Handicapped, UNICEF, Council General of Iran, Hebrew Union College, Council for Civic Unity, Jewish Publication Society, American Jewish Archives, World Union for Progressive Judaism, Boys Town Jerusalem, Jewish Statistical Bureau, American Jewish Historical Society, Histradut Ivrit, Multiple Sclerosis Society, Emanuel Gamoran Memorial Fund, Jewish Chautauqua Society.

CANTOR RINDER

On Erev Shabbat, May 17, a great congregation from Emanu-El and the entire Bay Area crowded the Temple to honor Cantor Reuben R. Rinder on the occasion of his Fiftieth Anniversary of service to Congregation Emanu-El and the community at large! It was a proud and historic occasion for our Temple and a fitting tribute to a man who is so widely loved and respected among us. God grant him many, many more years of health and achievement.

Cantor Rinder conducts a student group on a tour of the Temple. This activity more than any other characterizes his unceasing participation in the life of the Congregation.

A group of high school students meet informally with Cantor Rinder in the courtyard continuing an unbroken chain of affiliation linking the past, the present and the future.
